Wedding Bells

DUBASZ — DONOVAN

St. Thomas Church, Canterbury, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday morning, October 6; when Rev. D. S. Gillis united in marriage with nuptial mass, Winnifred Marie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Donovan and Illes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dubasz of Irma, Alberta. Rev. J. C. Conway, CSSR of Saint John was in the sanctuary.

The gold vases containing white baby mums and blue Votive lights decorated the altar. Ferns and baskets containing white baby mums were used effectively in the sanctuary and communion rail. The guest pews were marked with white satin bows and silver bells.

Miss Monica Keenan of Woodstock played the nuptial music with Miss Beatrice Keenan, also of Woodstock, guest soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a slipper length gown of French imported Chantilly, scalloped lace redingote over nylon tulle with tight fitting bodice of satin, Queen Ann collar with long tapering sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of nylon tulle illusion of two tier with Chantilly lace border fell from a tiara of iridescent sequin and a pearl trim. She carried a shower bouquet of chalk white carnations with long satin streamers with carnation buds.

Miss Mary Gallagher, maid of honor, chose a slipper length gown of white nylon and tulle, with lace bolero and sequin trim. Miss Patricia Donovan, cousin of the bride, wore a ballerina length white nylon ruffled tulle and lace trim with bolero of net over taffeta.

Little Barbara Jane Caldwell, cousin of the bride, was in a floor length white tulle with red satin sash. The bride's attendants were wearing bandage of red and white carnations and carried nosegays to match.

The bride's mother was attired in turquoise blue tulle over which she wore a black tight fitting coat with white beaver hat. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Constable Donald Johnson of St. Stephen acted as best man. Frances Donovan, cousin of the bride, and Gerald Kietly were Altar Boys. Constable A. A. McArthur and Constable Angus McKenzie of St. Stephen were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the new Trinity Hall for about 70 guests. Donald Caldwell, uncle of the bride, acted as toastmaster and Rev. R. J. Conway, CSSR, proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. Cpl.

The LETTER BOX

Dear Sir or Madam:

In a very few days the citizens of Irma and district will once more be asked to remember the dead of two World Wars by wearing a poppy and, where possible, by displaying a poppy wreath in places of business, churches, schools and in the window of their homes.

I know that in the minds of some people the annual Poppy Campaign is placed in the same category as other charitable appeals, and the question is often asked, why should not the Poppy Fund, which is one campaign, not be part of the Community Chest, which is many campaigns. I would indeed be grateful, Mr. Editor, for the further space necessary to answer this question.

Let us go back first of all to the years between 1914 and 1918 when Canada was engaged in the First World War. There are names that I would like to bring to your memory out of that conflict.

Do you remember Ypres, Passchendaele, Vimy Ridge, St. Julien, the Somme? In World War 2 have Ortona, Falaise, Dieppe any significance? Or have these names already faded from the consciousness of all but a few to whom they have a very personal meaning.

If these names mean anything to you, then the Poppy Fund will be for you much more than just another charity drive. The Poppy Campaigns is two-fold in its purpose and the most important of these is the Legion's self-imposed duty of ensuring that every Canadian wears a poppy, or displays a poppy wreath on Remembrance Day, thereby, participating in the Act of Remembrance, and helping to call to mind that the price of our freedom was sacrifice.

Canadian men of indomitable courage and spirit shed their blood and gave their lives on foreign battlefields for one purpose—peace. For no matter how clouded the side issues might be there can be no doubt that the only reason for making sacrifices of this magnitude is the preservation of the kind of freedom we enjoy in this country.

Canada says very little in the way of sacrifice from its ordinary citizens. We of the Canadian Legion, ask that you give to the Poppy Fund as much as you can spare and wear a poppy proudly so that all Canadians may give thought at least one day in the year to the high cost of freedom.

The Irma Branch of the Canadian Legion will again be sponsoring the annual Poppy Campaign in Irma and they ask the whole hearted support of the Community in this worthy cause. Poppies will be on sale in all places of business in town, and a tag sale will be held Saturday, November 8. Orders for wreaths will be taken also and anyone wishing to purchase one for display, contact Keith Coffin or A. C. Milne.

Remember—A Poppy On Every Shoulder.

Thanking you, I remain,

Yours truly,

R. E. Cogdon,

No. 2 Zone Commander.

VISIT TO EDMONTON

We saw in Edmonton this week—Shirley Mae Brown and Margery Coulman taking a lunch hour stroll. Albert Jackson all set to pilot his bus and passengers to St. Paul. O. G. Griffiths who was attending a school division convention in the city. Mrs. Gerald Currie enroute in a 72 St. trolley bus enroute to visit her daughter, Mrs. Robertson.

Then we spent an evening with life-long friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burch, earliest pioneers of the Mannville district. "J. B." was, as every old timer knows, the first storekeeper to set up shop at Mannville. Anyone who happened to tune in on the Beaver Lumber broadcast last Sunday evening will have heard how he freighted his supplies down the North Sask. River and met and married Carrie Bos, daughter of Mannville's first rancher. Sometime we hope to write Mr. Burch's story in detail but just for now we are mentioning him because he knows and remembers so many old timers here at Irma. Among those to whom he sends regards are Mrs. M. M. Frapp, Stanton and Garfield Coulman, Mrs. Capt. Larson and all the Larson families, Mr. J. W. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Prior, Mr. Wellington Prosser and the Prosser families.

Card of Thanks

We wish to say a very hearty thank you to all the boys and girls of the community who showed such kind consideration by not calling at our home Halloween night.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Eaton.

Notice

As Thursday, November 11 is a holiday, we ask that correspondents and advertisers get their copy ready to be sent up on Tuesday evening's local train, or not later than Wednesday morning's Sunburst bus.

Thanks a lot.

Glen-Coa Cleanings

F.O. John Erickson of Winnipeg was able to make it home for a brief visit last week-end.

Miss Lisa Hanson is always cheerful, but she glows with happiness now that her mother and little brother have come from Denmark to join the rest of the family here at Irma.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Larson, Lavinia and John took advantage of this super-fine weather to pay Mrs. Larson's sisters at Gwynne a visit the previous week-end.

Mr. O. Likness on Tuesday last, went to Camrose with a load of vegetables from our community for Camrose Lutheran College and the Canadian Lutheran Bible Institute. We understand Gordon Hollinger is taking more vegetables to these institutions this week-end.

When we hear of disastrous storms in other parts of Canada, and pea-soup-fogs at the west coast, we must feel a special thankfulness for our long, long spell of extra fine fall weather. Surely everyone has completed harvesting, and will be prepared for any kind of winter weather that may happen to come.

Armistice Service November 11

An Armistice service sponsored by the Irma Branch of the Canadian Legion will be held in the Legion Hall on Thursday, November 11 at 10:30 a.m. Address by Rev. Inglis. Public cordially invited.

WHAT DOES PUBLIC WELFARE DO IN ALBERTA

Public Welfare has become an important activity at all levels of government. In free societies such as Alberta the welfare for the unfortunate is the concern of every citizen and on this account there is need of a central organization to advise and assist all general community programmes to ease the burden of the handicapped.

This is the reason why welfare as administered by the Department of Public Welfare has always been an integral part of the Alberta Government's welfare programme which, with the exception of the Blind Persons' Allowances and the Old Age Assistance, is financed entirely out of Provincial revenues. Ten years ago the total expenditures for this purpose amounted to $5,216,887, while the amount provided for the present fiscal year has been set at $10,902,945.

The responsibility for providing assistance in the form of food, fuel, clothing and shelter and, when necessary, hospital and medical services to indigent persons rests with the municipality in which residence has been acquired. The Province provides grants to municipalities up to sixty percent of the cost of such assistance. The cost of providing the same form of assistance to persons who have no municipal residence is assumed by the Province.

Single, homeless, unemployed men who have not acquired municipal residence are cared for in the Provincial hostels at Calgary and Edmonton. Those who are not in need of any special care are transferred to the healthy atmosphere at the Gunn Welfare Depot.

The training and rehabilitation of Alberta's Metis population is also provided by the Province. In Colonies established in various parts of Alberta more than 2000 persons of mixed blood are living a protected life which offers them a future of independence and material success. Agriculture, lumbering and fishing are engaged in, providing revenue and a sense of self-sufficiency to the Colonists. Provision is made for the education of children and their spiritual welfare is provided for by representatives of various religious denominations. General stores operate in two of the larger Colonies supplying food and clothing at reasonable prices.

To enable municipalities to meet the housing requirements of their elderly or infirm citizens the Province has made provision for the payment of construction grants to any municipality which builds homes for its aged and infirm. If the municipality is required to pay for any of their residents who have been transferred to larger centers, which situation seldom exists, a grant up to 50 percent of the cost thereof is available from the Province.

Under an agreement with the Government of Canada the Alberta Government has set up a Committee to deal with the rehabilitation of disabled persons by arranging medical treatment where necessary and for vocational training with a view to enabling such persons to become self-supporting.

Children who have become permanent wards of the Government are placed in foster homes and as a rule are available for adoption.

The entire cost of administration of these services and of Old Age Assistance, Blind Persons' Allowances, Widows' Pensions, Disabled Persons' Pensions, Supplementary Allowances and Mothers' Allowances is assumed by the Province. Of the payments made to recipients of Old Age Assistance and Blind Persons' Allowances a portion is recoverable from the Government of Canada, while in the case of Child Welfare and Mothers' Allowances the municipalities in which the beneficiaries reside or have acquired residence are liable for a portion of the amount expended.

Local News

Weather—wonderful.

Mrs. W. J. Matthews had her uncle, his wife and child from Castor visiting recently.

Work has been started to drain the water from Johnson's slough (formerly Shaw's) to a southerly direction. This will be a big improvement to the town but we have to extend our sympathy to the ducks, muskrats and polywogs who have enjoyed this stronghold so long.

No sympathy to the mosquitoes—they had none for us!

The next well baby and preschool clinic will be held in Jarrow on Tuesday, November 9, from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burr on the birth of a daughter at Wainwright hospital on November 3.

Mr. Gilbert Lovig is at present a patient in the Viking hospital. We hope he will soon be home again.

ed by the Province. Of the payments made to recipients of Old Age Assistance and Blind Persons' Allowances a portion is recoverable from the Government of Canada, while in the case of Child Welfare and Mothers' Allowances the municipalities in which the beneficiaries reside or have acquired residence are liable for a portion of the amount expended.

Letterbox

Editor, Irma Times, Irma, Alberta.

True to form, the crisis in farming has hit the rural population first. Dropping prices, lowered grain grades, rising costs of living, have been felt throughout the prairie economy, and as far away as Toronto and Montreal. A real recession is shaping up fast.

The farming population is the only one of the main groups of producers poorly organized at the non-commercial level. We have dragged along year after year content with a 25 percent minority sign-up.

The trouble is that governments at any level do not heed representations from minorities—no matter how just their grievances may be.

This fall, after freeze-up, our Farmers' Union has decided to stage an all-one-day membership drive to be known as F.U.A. Roundup Day. It is being held in order to enroll a clear majority of all resident farm families in our grassroots economic organization.

When we succeed, as we must, it will be for the first time in Canadian rural history. That is why the sympathy and active support of all farm families is sought by us at the present time.

Our program includes among other points the following reasonable requests—

1. Cash advances on farm-stored grain (withheld from the markets through no fault of the producer).
2. Parity prices for all farm products sold in Canada.
3. Floor prices on all farm products sold outside Canada.

On Roundup Day, "crews" of Riders will attempt to cover every township, road by road, all over the Province until everyone has had an opportunity of saying whether he or she chooses to present a united front to halt return of the 1930's in agriculture.
